She's Leaving Tuesday

Grinspoon

Pack a suitcase , she's leaving Tuesday
This shits been over since you gone
But you know, its for sure
I tried to pretend to go , Best off you leave me on my own

Ain't no use to, talk about grade school
You better leave before I change.
And you'll see it's not me , thats made you so unhappy
I'm better off being in a cage .

Standing at the end of the earth , waiting for something to rem ind me of You're so precious now that you've gone, I hope you can hear me somewhere in this storm
Now you're gone , it's all wrong. Yeah
Now you're gone Nanananana.....
