Sad Day (For Happiness)

Cinema Bizarre

I'll meet you on the other side in the apple of my eye Let us paint a scenery in a color we can see

Switch the news off, go to sleep fight the tears in misery I've exchanged my childhood dreams for a bunch of make-believes

Touch the button
you should sit and listen Watching as a tear
rains into a broken heart

It's a sad day for happiness
in this crazy world
It's a crazy world so all we can do is be a little crazy to save today

Tainted stories made to please, in those glossy magazines My next door neighbor never speaks, the curtains closed with seventeen

Touch the button
you should sit and listen
Watching as a tear

in this crazy world
It's a crazy world so
all we can do is be a little crazy, to save, today

Candy floss, and ring-a-ding Fairground noise, and lots of bling
How much is a four-leafed clover riding on my roller-coaster

in this crazy world
all we can do is be a little crazy, to save, today.
