Beautiful

Dami Im

Every look in the mirror is a casting of dark
The longer you look, the less you see of you
Every horse-back hero that arrives in
Leaves you right in this desert along
So your self-worth become self-hurt
Bullets and blades getting under your skin
Where there's graffitis on the [?]
But they can't touch what lays within

You're beautiful
You're beautiful
You're beautiful to me
You're beautiful
You're beautiful
And I'll say it until you see!
This skin you're in it's all you need
You're all so perfectly
You're beautiful
You're beautiful
And I'll say it until you see
You're beautiful!

And one by one, obstacles will rise
Like waves, they won't stop no matter the tide
They'll entice you in, with a tarn of peace
They drawn you out when you turn the other cheek
Don't get caught in then it, don't take the risk
They'll take the rest of you and we turn
You're stronger then this, swim forward and fierce
When you're tired out I'll be your hands and feet

You're beautiful
You're beautiful
You're beautiful to me
You're beautiful
You're beautiful
And I'll say it until you see!
This skin you're in it's all you need
You're all so perfectly
You're beautiful
You're beautiful
And I'll say it until you see,
You're beautiful!

The world will stop, and hold the breath
The hands of time will come to rest
When your moment comes to rise
You'll realize

You're beautiful
You're beautiful
You're beautiful to me
You're beautiful
You're beautiful
And I'll say it until you see!
This skin you're in it's all you need
You're all so perfectly

You're beautiful
You're beautiful
And I'll say it until you see,
You're beautiful!
