

Marionette

12 Rods

a disposable playtoy and you know how to move me (i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette) hanging from threads i can't see (i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette) you cut my strings and we'll see what freedom brings am i a casualty when i'm away from you fucked up but with nowhere to go

(i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette)
i'm slack from my head to my toe
(i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette)
a quick goodbye
doesn't give me time to cry i'm just a slumping doll with nothing else to do a black box you're calling my home

(i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette)
the ken doll won't leave me alone (i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette) he cut me down to size and it opened up my eyes
i gotta take the power back away from you don't wanna be a marionette not made to be a marionette don't wanna be a puppeteer's pet but i'm a marionette cuz i'm in love with you gonna wish upon a star tell me who the hell i are (i'm a marionette like you) shake that wooden cross and remind me that you are the boss so i'll do a little dance designed by you

fucked up but with nowhere to go
(i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette)
i'm slack from my head to my toe
(i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette)
a quick goodbye

a black box you're calling my home
(i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette)
the bitch dolls won't leave me alone (i'm a marionette, i'm a marionette) they cut me down to size
and it opened up my eyes
i gotta take the power back away from you
