

Good morning Have you woken up? You've lost this game You've lost to me, who has power over everything in the whole world

A foolish future Filled with love A ridiculous love song
Passionate with hope For love, for you, it's so trivial

anytime for the music.
anytime for the music.
dance,dance,dance,everything confusion.
dance,dance,dance,everything confusion.
dance,dance,dance,everything confusion.
dance,dance,dance,everything confusion.

[wake up!!]
Let me ask you six questions
A chained beast
Do you rebel against your fate?
I want you to release your instincts

The world becomes distorted The gray clouds carry lies Looks like I won't need an umbrella Cards are falling down in chaos

[wake up!!]
The unearthed crime of the past
And those fangs sinking into your heart
Live only with your instincts
That's the punishment for losing the game

[time up]
Receiver, midnight, confusion, chaos, black suits Sheep man, cards, party, brain, scheme, state of affairs
Sleep, hypnosis, joke, umbrella, transactions, double personality
My name is six.....
