

Silent Light

2nd Suicide

Silence and light
Across distance and time
Vague remainders of the past

Violent darkness
A state devoid of calm
Crumbling what's left
To lean upon

Staring into the deep waters dark
To the silent lights of long ago
Longing for what is no more

Fire and ice
They govern here now
Deadly remainders of today

Creeping hours
Passing like aeons one by one
Oh they, will they ever cease

Staring into the deep waters dark
To the silent lights of long ago
Longing for what is no more

Beware, hold your ground
Damnation on the threshold
Weep not for the lost
For loss is all we have

Silence and light
Across distance and time
Vague remainders of the past

Fire and ice
They govern here now
Oh they, they will never cease
