Aniseed

3 Colours Red

Little people looking through the windows Checking out their alteregos Down.. Out..

No risk, but there is no passion Your computer's checking my rations

Down.. Out.. take heed

You cut, I bleed blood like aniseed My eyes dilate, reigning dreamstate I could give in to your needs If we weren't such a crossbreed

You were made to sit up with the gods Eternally against the odds

Down.. Out..

No risk, but there is no passion Your computer's checking my rations

Down.. Out.. take heed

You cut, I bleed blood like aniseed My eyes dilate, reigning dreamstate I could give in to your needs If we weren't such a crossbreed

You won't take my life away You won't take my life away

Little people lloking through the windows Checking out their alteregos

Down.. Out..

No risk, but there is no passion Your computer's checking my rations

Down.. Out.. take heed

You cut, I bleed blood like aniseed My eyes dilate, reigning dreamstate I could give in to your needs... If we weren't such a crossbreed
