

Stranger in a Strange Land

30 Seconds To Mars

Enemy of mine
I'll fuck you like the devil
Violent inside
Beautiful and evil

I'm a ghost, you're an angel
One and the same
Just remains of an age

Lost in a daydream
What do you see?
If you're looking for Jesus
Then get on your knees

Enemy of mine
I'm just a stranger in a strange land
Running out of time
Better go, go, go

Angel or demon
I gave up my soul
I'm guilty of treason
I've abandoned control

Tonight

The end is coming, everybody run
Now we're gonna live forever, gonna live forever
Tonight, Tonight, Tonight

The end is coming, everybody run
Now we're gonna live forever, gonna live forever
Tonight, Tonight, Tonight

The end is coming, everybody run
Now we're gonna live forever, gonna live forever
Tonight, Tonight, Tonight

The end is coming, everybody run
Now we're gonna live forever, gonna live forever
Tonight, Tonight, Tonight

The end is coming, everybody run
Now we're gonna live forever, gonna live forever
Tonight

Lost in a daydream
What do you see?
If you're looking for Jesus
Get on your knees

Angel or demon
I gave up my soul
I'm guilty of treason
