

This is an extension achieving new heights of the day
Circumvent the limits come through disarray
Greater ascension cause I was born to elevate
Never have been one to be cast away
We're going stronger, take it in along the way
I got this super OG and the Ghost Train haze
It's an extension, it's reaching so far away
Now we just break it on down, hey

Stand undefeated compete in anything that we set our mind
United by our fire to be undefined
Working all the time and gonna be fun because it's really play
That's because you wouldn't have it any other way
Deep inside the reaches of the entangled mind
I find a place where I can go where no one ever will find
I make a perfect exchange, I make it kind acting strange
Sometimes the places that I go make people think I'm deranged
If there's a reason that you're holding up the wall let it fall
I think it's treason when I'm seeing people throwing it all
I let them all just fly by with a quick wink to the eye
I think you all better get used to saying goodbye

It's an extension, it's reaching so far away
Now we just give you something sweet

Because the people dig deeper when with you always Something about that decades taken day by day, wanna replay
Thinking about no equal when jumping into the fray
What you gonna try, don't tell it goodbye, just get it underway (ay!)

You got a spirit yes it's making a wave
See all the people attracted to it and they come around, they come around and
You look and bear it as there's no other way
And so you step into the ground, they've all been getting down
