Rejection

40 Below Summer

Why'd you take that away from me -Just one taste and I needed a little more of your sweet honey I want you to feel my pain I want you - don't walk away I need you - the time is right I need to hold you tight Rejection - I can't believe you're gone

Rejection - why'd you have to walk away Rejection - I can't believe you're gone Rejection - now it's time to turn the page Rejection - What the fuck did I do Rejection - why'd you have to walk away Rejection - you broke me in two REJECTION - REJECTION

What the fuck did I do What did I do to deserve the blame Remember this, and don't forget my name Handle this shit before I rope ya I'm gonna slit your throat before I smoke ya Bet it all - but you don't own me You tried to punk me - but you don't know me You tried to blow me off without no question You better pray for divine intervention

You really didn't think I'd let you walk away from me Just one more time - I need to feel your lips around this piece If you could come my way - what could I do to make you stay Then you could penetrate my life - then you'd rip me up inside

Rejection - I can't believe you're gone Rejection - Why'd you have to walk away Rejection - I can't believe you're gone Rejection - Now it's time to turn the page Rejection - What the fuck did I do Rejection - Why'd you have to walk away Rejection - you broke me in two REJECTION - REJECTION

Pushing and crushing me - down on my knees Taking and breaking - and making me scream I can't contain this - I'll make you all bleed You've opened me up - now you'll feel my disease In my suffering (stop) Suffering (dying too)

Even in my suffering - I'll make you believe You can't believe I'll make you disappear Occurred to me - and then it became clear Rejected me - oh no, I don't think so I'll take you out quick - don't even blink ..so You cut me up and hung me out to dry Got your itch - like a bitch - you made me cry...but Retribution, confusion, illusion hairline fracture, multiple contusiondon't walk away
