

When Alone

4Lyn

Somebody told me it's written in stone Fool, you can't be in love when alone! I love the stillness in the air Calm when no one's there Nor worries, no cares when alone Enjoy the peace and privacy No games or rivalries I have no other needs when alone fade out the sound Fade out the noises Fade out the crowd Fade out the voices

Love seems so much easier when alone But life is so much prettier when you're home

I love to listen to my thoughts No secrets to guard I never get bored when alone I love the freedom and the space No hurry, no chase It's a wonderful day when alone

So fade out the lights Fade out the tension A day full of blithe Without attention

Love seems so much easier when alone But life is so much prettier when you're home
