

The Day Of The Locust

69 Chambers

Go west, young man
Fill yourself up on the fat of the land, you're

Playing death by stardom
With dreams like a time bomb
Playing death by stardom
Give me, give me

Give me a night and a day full of shame
Give me my fifteen seconds of fame
Give me a night and a day full of shame
Give me my fifteen seconds

Go shout down your fate
Go drink from her cup, go fill up your plate, you're

Playing death by stardom
With dreams like a time bomb
Playing death by stardom
Give me, give me

Give me a night and a day full of shame
Give me my fifteen seconds of fame
Give me a night and a day full of shame
Give me my fifteen seconds of fame
It's the day of the locust

There is nothing you crave like a hollow grave
Like a hole in your soul, the desire makes full
There is nothing you crave like a hollow grave
Like a hole in your soul, the desire that makes you full

Give me a night and a day full of shame
Give me my fifteen seconds of fame
Give me a night and a day full of shame
Give me my fifteen seconds
It's the day of the locust
It's the day of the locust
