Oko Town

77 Bombay Street

I didn't sleep well last night
I dreamed I was with Ben Roy in a fight
He punched me right in my head
I thought I'll be dead
But I wasn't dead so I got back to my track
I stood up and hit him he turned into a wrack
I felt like superman cause I defeated a bad man

I'm the ulalala of Oko town
The ulalala of Oko town
I defeated Ben Roy and I'm singing with joy

Three minutes later my dream was gone
I woke up, went down to see my lawn
Looked up right to the stars
Wished I cloud fly up to Mars
Got back to my bed and closed my eyes
I had the same dream and started to realize
I'm the boss in this town and no more the unfunny clown

I oh I, I defeated Ben Roy
I oh I and I'm singing, singing, singing with joy

The ulalala of Oko town
The ulalala of Oko town
I defeated Ben Roy and I'm singing with joy

One more time

I oh I, I defeated Ben Roy
I oh I and I'm singing, singing, singing with joy

The ulalala, everybody
The ulalala, sing along
The ulalala of Oko town

The ulalala of Oko town
The ulalala of Oko town
I defeated Ben Roy and I'm singing with joy

Oh oh, I'm in Oko town
Oh oh, I'm in Oko town
