

Confession

7Days

My soul is clouded, shallow
I need to cry, I need to die
My heart is feeble, aching
I need to breath new life

Give me a sign of the truth
I need to know and to believe
My heart is feeble, aching
I need to breath new life

Forgive me
Please ease my mind
Forgive me
Please wipe away these tears

Oh, be my guide and make me understand your ways
Oh, be my guide and take me to the way that you have made

How can I make you stay
Is there a way, to feed this fire
When will it go away?
Will it always haunt my mind

Tears of relief leave my chest
Like rain grim heavy clouds above

Never have I felt such freedom
Like in this silent prayer

Forgive me
Please ease my mind
Forgive me
Please wipe away these tears

Oh, be my guide and make me understand your ways
Oh, be my guide and take me to the way that you have made

How can I make you stay
Is there a way, to feed this fire
When will it go away?
Will it always haunt my mind
