The Void

A Canorous Quintet

Horrified by the magic of night I'm enchanted under the spell In pain i scream once again The pain i thought that i would feel It came upon me early this time

* i try to escape into the void Into my nomansland How else would i survive x2 Trapped in the spidersweb She who will eat out my heart Leaves he with laughters of malice

As many nights before I fear it's my dying breath Still i do this with pleasure Although i know it's pointless and useless I end up with the poison Running through my veins

(doomed to) eternally suffer Eternally die Eternally arise Immortal in my suffering x2

I try to escape into the void Into my nomansland How else would i survive

*repeat

The void x2
