

Beloved

A.R. Kane

Yes I want you
and I need you
the angel just passed me by, oh!
I feel like I could change inside I feel like I can change inside breeze flicker through my mind feel your body close on mine
inside you:
looking down below
see the love flow
then the love go
what is love's time
can we ever know?

electricity blossoms
sparks in my mind
then I glow for a while
and I'm gone!
I feel like I could love tonite
I feel like I can love tonite wings flutter moon bright close my eyes real tight
and find you:

looking down below
see the life grow
then the life blow
in a lifetime
can we really know?

my head in the clouds an my feet on the ground
spinning out of the dream
and I'm gone!
