Beloved

Yes I want you and I need you the angel just passed me by, oh! I feel like I could change inside I feel like I can change inside breeze flicker through my mind feel your body close on mine inside you: looking down below see the love flow then the love go what is love's time can we ever know?

electricity blossoms sparks in my mind
then I glow for a while and I'm gone!
I feel like I could love tonite
I feel like I can love tonite wings flutter moon bright close my eyes real tight and find you:

looking down below see the life grow then the life blow in a lifetime can we really know?

my head in the clouds an my feet on the ground spinning out of the dream and I'm gone! A.R. Kane
