

Vicious Circles

Aaron Lewis

If I could walk on water like jesus did before
If I knew all the answers to keep you coming back for more
If I could paint a picture and then cut off my own ear
If I chose all the right colors would this just dissapear?

Because we're running in vicious circles
Until we're dizzy with disdain
and there's miles and miles between us
Yet we still remain

So if I could write a poem and find the perfect words and then put them all in music just so my voice gets heard

Because we're running in vicious circles
Until we're dizzy with disdain
and there's miles and miles between us
Yet we still remain

So if I could walk on water like jesus did before and if I knew all the answers, I'd keep you coming back for more

Because we're running in vicious circles
Until we're dizzy with disdain
and there's miles and miles between us
and yet we still remain

We're running in vicious circles
Until we're dizzy with disdain
and there's miles and miles between us
Yet we still remain

Yet we still remain
