

Fear Of The Dream

Abstract Essence

Every evening when the sun is dying
And the Lord of night shines through the sky
Something strange awaits me as I am lying
The sight's getting darker, nowhere to hide

Every night it's always the same
Visions of the future are going their own way
No one can save you from this cruel game
Did you wake up? You've won just next day

Chorus: I've got a fear of dream
Fear of this beast
Coming through unconsciousness stream
Along the hidden midnight street

The senseless end of this ghostly story
Won't allow you to open eyes
It's just a dream so don't be worried
It's just a dream no space for lies
