Innocent Blood

Cries of joy, a helpless cause Memories lost, insanity Guilty mind, innocent blood Spread for one, so helplessly Death for one, no escape Freedom be just steps away Bargains bought, roaming free Victims pray

Try to save Forget the memories of today Reach for the final breath Born to be Silent curse, mindless pain Plagued by the surgeon's keys

Thoughts of pain, running wild Bearing down upon one's mind Unrightful justice in control Changing time to time Offering lessons to learn Destruction carefree concern Sinister lay awaiting Observer closes the keys
