

Tropical Island

Adam Green

Tropical Island, oh
Tropical island, oh
Feel the sea breeze waiting
To lay you down just like a diamond, oh

Courageous peufis by design
Blankets filled with iodine
Lover come again just fine
Meet us in one day

Ring ding battering ram
Full dissect the battle plan
He who sells his percodines one day
Tropical island, woah, woah, woah

When I'm a sad sight, oh
When I'm just bagpipes, oh
I want to make it known you
Befriend me long after my twilight, oh

Whitest oceans often sigh
Just enough to color it nice
Who's you're willing sacrifice
Meet us in one day

Ring ding another one dies
Watching posers scandalize
Trading of their panty lines one day
Tropical island, woah, woah, woah

Dreaming of a taxi which covers my dismay
It's in a tunnel, the sun discounts the rain
For all those blow horns just crying where you are
The light is out there, tears eclipse the sun is just too far

Whitest oceans often sigh
Just enough to color it nice
Who's your willing sacrifice
Meet us in one day

Watching posers scandalize
Trading of their panty lines one day
Tropical island, woah, woah, woah
