

Wait

Addison Road

Verse 1:

Why do you choose to act this way?; Why do you choose to play t his game?

One day you'll wake up and find that we're all gone.

Life could be so much more for you; Love and laughter it's all true

If smiles are worth a million words just show me one.

Chorus:

And I will love, and I will wait for you.

We're getting nowhere, stop messing around and just be you.

Yeah yeah, yeah yeah

Verse 2:

You're not easy in my life but neither am I; We've clashed for way too long.

The truth is hitting home.

But I will love you when it's hard.

If this is how life goes; I'm ready for our show.
