

I Belong To You

Aesthetic Perfection

Look inside yourself
Your soul is hollow
You live inside your hell
You're fake and shallow
The darkness fades to light
I know you're always right
Because I belong to you

I am everything
I am nothing
I am what you need
Everything has gone astray
You are just like me
You are nothing
You are everything when everything has gone away

Don't try to be a friend
Your words cannot defend
Your inflicted wounds
You cannot compromise
Every single lie that you told
And you know it's true
