

Lucky One

Agents of Good Roots

I'm looking through the window
Looking around
For memories bound
In a scrapbook

I'm trying to remember
What was the date
When fate hit the stake
And was burned down

(chorus):

But let me tell you you're the lucky one
You're the only one
Good god you're the lucky one
You're the only one
But oh, my eyes can't see
What's come over me

I'm flipping through the Scriptures
Thinking I'm wise
It's all a disguise
Or illusion

I'm bitching 'bout my staircase
It's twisted in knots
It climbs and it stops
And I'm nowhere

(chorus)

(chorus)

What's come over me
What's come over me
