Bliss

I saw the truth, mom's a whore. I saw the mark as she passed through the door. I saw the truth, you're a whore. Distill the scene and don't lie to me no more.

So what's killing you? Is it the demon inside? Look out you're turning blue.. A suffocating lie.

You're all I've got. You're all I've got.

To wake up she fucks the pain. (Wipe those tears away.) She wears make-up to hide the shame. (Wipe those tears away.) Her sanity rides low and self esteem won't grow. Tonight she'll miss and all she knows, and all she knows, all s he knows is bliss.

So what's killing you? Is it the demon inside? Look out you're turning blue.. A suffocating lie.

You're all I've got. You're all I've got. You're all I've got.

Her black eyes filled with the love she wrote: "I'm not insane, I'm sorry I have to go." These walls are painted red, she put a bullet in her head. Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye is all she said.

So what's killing you? Is it the demon inside? Look out you're turning blue.. A suffocating lie.

You're all I've got. You're all I've got.
