

Tall Boy

Akeboshi

Tears and rain are everywhere I go
I'm tired of this weather long ago
Twenty thousand yen to go to get a ticket for a next goal

Oh boy, I lost another game
It's all the same
I hear your fame

Maybe, it's just a game
But it's not the same
I'll kill your fame

Maybe he is decieving maybe I should grab the money and run...
'Cause today is the day if I say so
Today is the day if I try so

Tall boy, what can you see from there?
Tell me exactly what you see
Oh boy, don't show your back too long
Feel's like I wanna start a game again...

Today is the day if I say so
Today is the day if I try so
Today is the day Today is the day

Today is the day if I say so
Whenever is the time if you do so...if you do so
