I dunno
Yo, you know it's hold on
I like that shit, the a capella vibe
I'm on-- Let's see, hold on, hold on let me think
We just seen a baseball game tonight, right?
If I kick some shit,
Will y'all believe me that it's off the dome? I promise?
'Cause I be bullshittin' on the radio, kickin'...

Okay, buss it

Off the top of the dome, here's my first offerin'
MC's are slow on the defense like Offerman
Check the lyrics out on Ballentin
I snatch your girl and take her to third base like John Valentin
And then I'll have you looking in the mirror
I'll throw you on the disabled list like And keep the shit sooo strong,
You'll be like "That's the big man, like Mo Vaughn"
And when I come out manly,
I'll replace you at first base like I'm Mike Stanley
You know I'm getting batter
Speedy 'round the bases like my name was Donnie Sadler
My first name's Jaren so check out
Step up out of place and I'll catch you like Varitek
You know I hit the screen well
Take you out to left field like my man Mike Greenwell
Like my man
Coming off the top of the head, it's the dread
You know I'm coming off the mic to face y'all
Fuck this shit, this is the first of baseball
