Remind

Alastis

A new perception of the world Appearns in your mind And you retrieve your instincts On your decision Open gates on a new truth You undersand You're only temporar In this matter's body

Come on, slaves of rot Kneeling in front Of your torturer

Don't you feel that
Through the hatred
The light materializes
From your cries of pain
It comes alive
On your destrissed it feasts

Come on, slaves of rot
Kneeling in front
Of your torturer

In each being
I guess the death
And if by mistake
You pass my way
Don't expect any fellow
And get ready for
Worst anxieties

Come on, slaves of rot Kneeling in front Of your torturer

I`ll feast on the blackness
Of your soul
I`ll spit on your
Lowest supplications
No ending, no beginning, I draw
My force from your death

Come on, slaves of rot
Kneeling in front
Of your torturer
