

A Job Is A Home To A Homeless Man

Albert Hammond

A job is a home to a homeless man
When you have no woman to run to
Why hurry home

No one to share my meals with
My desires and my ideals with
Well, I might as well stay on the job
And get something done

A job is a home to a homeless man
That's what I've been since you left me
Please hurry home

I need someone to sleep with
Someone gentle to laugh and weep with
I'm so tired of living to work
As hard as I can

A job is a home to a homeless man

I need someone to sleep with
Someone gentle to laugh and weep with
I'm so tired of living to work
As hard as I can

A job is a home to a homeless man...