

The Way It Is

Alela Diane

Is this the end of what was said?
This is the last stop, cos everybody's gettin' off.
But hey babe, I ain't gonna go your way,
Cos this just ain't like me.

There's things in the world that I know nothing about,
And that's just the way it is.

It's a meeting of friends, it don't matter when.
It's so good to see you, it's always good to see you.
But hey babe, I ain't gonna go your way,
Cos this just ain't like me.

There's things in the world that I know nothing about,
And that's just the way it is.

Stone grounds, Old house,
Red stars, Graveyards
But hey babe, I ain't gonna go your way,
Cos this just ain't like me.

There's things in the world that I know nothing about,
And that's just the way it is.
