The morning light caresses your face on my pillow
Youre still asleep and you're so beautiful
Im so proud that i lie right beside you
My bed, my sheets, you and me, so suitable
You give me the best of you, and i wanna give you the best of m
I know that to two of us together we are meant to be
I adore you, my bodys calling for you
I feel like ive come home when im with you
Youre so beautiful
I just thought you ought to know
This is original
I never felt like this way before
And now im waking up with you
I can't belive that this is true
Youre so beautiful
The glow of a candle caresses your face on my pillow
You just fell asleep and you're so beautiful (youre so beautifu
1)
It feels so good, i cannot belive it's real
This silence of the night, you by my side, i got it all (yo i g ot it all)
You give me the best of you, and i wanna give you the best of m
I know that the two of us together we are meant to be
I adore you, my bodys calling for you
I really, really, really, really love you
Youre so beautiful
I just thought you ought to know
This is original
I never felt this way before
And now im waking up with you
I can't belive that this is true
Youre so beautiful
Youre so beautiful
I just thought you ought to know
This is original
I never felt this way before
And now im waking up with you
I can't belive that this is true
Youre so beautiful
... so don't you ever walk away
Never, never.. no, no...

... don't you walk away from me now...
