

Shutting You Out

Alexz Johnson

Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out

Chains are gone
Life's remaking
Road is long
It's what I'm taking Hanging on
This is all I know

Shutting you out, shutting you out

I'll erase what you made me
I'll release what you gave me
In your face
That is all I know

Shutting you out, shutting you out

Now I see rain on me
Cleansing me
My wings are free

And now I see
Anger seeps
Through the air that breathes in me
Running down these empty streets
Searching what I know

Shutting you out, shutting you out

Choirs bring
What my heart needs me to sing
Open doors that have no strings
Signs tell me to go

Shutting you out, shutting you out

Now I see rain on me
Cleansing me
My wings are free

I'm shutting you out
I'm gonna leave you behind
One step at a time
I'm gonna do it cause I said so
I'm gonna make it cause I said so

Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out

Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out

Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out

Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out

I'm shutting you out
I'm closing my door
I'm shutting you out
I'm shutting you out

Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out

I'm shutting you out
I'm closing my door
I'm shutting you out
I'm shutting you out

Shutting you out, shutting you out
Shutting you out, shutting you out
