

Why I Cry (Cover)

All-Time Quarterback

All the summer days, where we used to play
Walking hand in hand, castles in the sand

So you said goodnight, but you meant goodbye
Now our love has died, this is why I cry

From the madding crowd, pointing up at clouds
Summer turned to fall, pictures on the wall

So you said goodnight but you meant goodbye
Now our love has died, this is why I cry
