

Under The Waves

Allen-Lande

Seeking for shelter
Hunting for life
Running from creatures
That lead me to chose the wrong way

Hold on it's not far now
Soon you can hear the sound of the sea
Hold on, just a few more steps
And the sea will embrace you

Under the waves, deep down below
Where the evil ones won't dare to go
Under the waves, the deep down blue
Where the angels will find you
Under the waves, deep down below
Where the evil ones won't dare to go
Under the waves, the deep down blue
Where the angels will find you

Searching for peace
Longing for calm
Escaping the liars
That lead you on to wicked ways

Hold on it's not far now
Soon you can hear the sound of the sea
Hold on, just a few more steps
And the sea will embrace you

Under the waves, deep down below
Where the evil ones won't dare to go
Under the waves, the deep down blue
Where the angels will find you
Under the waves, deep down below
Where the evil ones won't dare to go
Under the waves, the deep down blue
Where the angels will find you
