

I Ain't Giving Up On You

Allison Moorer

I always toss it in when things get heavy
Wash my hands and leave 'em high and dry
I've put 'em to the wind like confetti
But a lady has a right to change her mind

I ain't giving up on you
I ain't giving up on you

By owning up to this I'm breaking the promise
I made when I was on the losing end
To tell the truth it's hard being honest

When there is something else that might break again

I ain't giving up on you
I ain't giving up on you

The tin horn's jumping off the deep end
Betting on a million-to-one shot
All I want to do is break even
And you're the best chance I got

I ain't giving up on you
I ain't giving up on you
