Send Down An Angel

Allison Moorer

It's nearly 3 a.m.
And still no sight of him
When it comes to love
I'm in the dark

Lord, I don't understand Why I stand by my man All he's ever done Is break my heart

Won't you send down an angel From the blue To show me the righteous Thing to do Oh, I'm calling out to you Send down an angel To get me through

I'm not the praying kind But it can't hurt to try I can't find the answer By myself I need help

Won't you send down an angel From the blue To show me the righteous Thing to do Oh, I'm calling out to you Send down an angel To get me through

Won't you send down an angel From the blue To show me the righteous Thing to do Oh, I'm calling out to you Send down an angel To get me through
