

Thunderstorm/Hurricane

Allison Moorer

Dark cloud hanging overhead
Sky is grey blue and red
I should have run now it's too late
A thunderstorm a hurricane

I ignore all the signs
So it took me by surprise
Now I'm caught out in the rain
A thunderstorm a hurricane

Let it pour over me
Holy water make me clean
Drive and drive and I disappear
Like I was never here

Everything is washed away
A thunderstorm a hurricane
