

Iron Nation

Almora

The force in my soul is roaring with roll the light in my eyes is leading my soul the voice in my car is breaking all the rules the fire in my heart is burning with roll the child in my heart is feeling the freedom the loudness is calling me to the iron kingdom the sound of the rock is my passion yes, i'm part of the iron nation i'm raising my fist to the sky with all my force i'm feeling the power of rock in my soul i'm crying so loud, do you hear my call? let's cry with the power: it's rock'n roll the dark in my heart is changing to light the light in my eyes is leading my heart the fire in my soul is shining like sun the eagles in my heart are ready to fly
