

Don't Hurt Yourself

Aloha from Hell

You always take a different way
Without facing consequences
I wonder if your hide away
Has high fences

Should I try and break those chains
Get inside your deepest feelings
The anger running through your veins
Won't stop the bleeding

Don't hurt yourself
Don't hurt yourself
'Cause you are gorgeous
Don't hurt yourself
Don't hurt yourself
No more

I wish that I could understand
The reason for your self-destruction
Driven by your own demands
You seek distraction

A moment and the pain is gone
A feeling that is most relieving
And this will keep going on
Can't stop the bleeding
Stop the bleeding

Don't hurt yourself
Don't hurt yourself
'Cause you are gorgeous
Don't hurt yourself
Don't hurt yourself
No more

Underneath the scars
A life so young
But the wounds
Can heal on anyone

Don't hurt yourself
Don't hurt yourself
'Cause you are gorgeous
Don't hurt yourself
Don't hurt yourself
No more
