Don't Hurt Yourself

Aloha from Hell

You always take a different way Without facing consequences I wonder if your hide away Has high fences

Should I try and break those chains Get inside your deepest feelings The anger running through your veins Won't stop the bleeding

Don't hurt yourself Don't hurt yourself 'Cause you are gorgeous Don't hurt yourself Don't hurt yourself No more

I wish that I could understand The reason for your self-destruction Driven by your own demands You seek distraction

A moment and the pain is gone A feeling that is most relieving And this will keep going on Can't stop the bleeding Stop the bleeding

Don't hurt yourself Don't hurt yourself 'Cause you are gorgeous Don't hurt yourself Don't hurt yourself No more

Underneath the scars A life so young But the wounds Can heal on anyone

Don't hurt yourself Don't hurt yourself 'Cause you are gorgeous Don't hurt yourself Don't hurt yourself No more
