

When we walked in the sun
And we spoke with a rise
knowing what was to come
In the season of ice
When we walked in the sun
And talked in the sun
And we knew everything.

When we lived in our time
That's eluded us now
We try hard to return
But nobody knows how
When we lived in a time
And loved in a time
And we had everything.

Crystallnight
Oooh, and we knew everything
Crystallnight

Now the tables have turned
And the seasons have passed
We have wasted our lives
And strayed from the path
That we walked in the sun
When we talked in the sun
And we had everything

When we walked in the sun
And we spoke with a rise
No one knew what was to come
In the season of ice
When we walked in the sun
And we talked in the sun
And we knew everything

Oooh, and we knew everything

Now haven't you heard, haven't you heard?
(Crystallnight)
We're a part of the night.
