

Absolution

Amduscia

Feel the anger
When you're seeing his eyes
Wait for a longer question
When you're seeing his sign
Why don't you think in your lies?
Christ, you're not welcome in my life

Great expectation for he'll bless you
With this cross in your face

You claim your absolution
No fear
You are without illusion
Just feel

The church is not the answer for me
Your priest is not my father, just shit

Perversion, consolation only for my eyes

Deception, fake intentions only for my soul
