crucify my soul by your hands i don't believe it, i have my destiny in your faulty body tell me why?
in this way nobody is feeling you tell my why?
come on now
take my body, nobody`s feeling you you think that this thing is a lie i was watching in my dying pain i have been chosen to die i'll return to hell
i'm breaking blessed stigmas like a devil signs
your prayers are melodies
for the devil
crap your lost, is the only thing that i am thingking merciless vain reign
i lost goodness for you my sin is to know oneself and see the rotting inside of me you destroy my mind
in your name of god
i can see you crap
in your name of god
fucking servant
condemn me in your game that you'll believe this is a mourning from which you'll never be again you'll scratch your legs you'll swallow my sperm what's your vanity?
this is your reality
shout, i know you'll lose
i know you'll bleed
