

Walk in My Shoes

Amelia Lily

Of all the memories in time, they never fade away in my mind
Still believe it's not all you, I miss you
And when I think about your smile
Together we laugh so hard that we cry
The hands of time can be so cruel, yeah it's true

In a way that my heart get sworn
Won't but still a little bit, a little bit torn
Everyday that I'm on my own
I hold on to my memories, my memories slow

When I'm feeling in the blues
I think about all the fun I had with you
Take a walk in my shoes and you can understand how I feel for you

Pictures of you, won't forget
Fading in my mind, I won't forget
And printed on my mind, stuck in my head
Ahead of all the time, you instead

In a way that my heart get sworn
Won't but still a little bit, a little bit torn
Everyday that I'm on my own
I hold on to my memories, my memories slow

When I'm feeling in the blues
I think about all the fun I had with you
Take a walk in my shoes and you can understand how I feel for you

When I'm feeling in the blues
Understand, it's nothing like I felt with you
Take a walk in my shoes, because it's deep and I'm thinking about you

Oooah I had to feel thoughts that i wanted to share with you
But you're not around, I can't believe I'm on my own now
It was for the best, I know that's what we do
Our journey got

When I'm feeling in the blues
I think about all the fun I had with you
Take a walk in my shoes and you can understand how I feel for you

When I'm feeling in the blues
Understand, it's nothing like I felt with you
Take a walk in my shoes, because it's deep and I'm thinking about you
