

Bring Me the Heads

Amen

Bring me the head of Roman Polanski
Bring me the legs of Fred Astaire

We come from a place called heaven
That you made hell, that you can sell
We set fires to this lesson
That heavens sell, that lesson failed

War, we need this war
War, we need this war
Right on

Bring me the head of Roman Polanski
Bring me the legs of Fred Astaire

We come from this hell called heaven
That vision's held, that vision killed
We set fires to your lessons
Your babies kill, your babies guilt

War, we need this war
War, we need this war
Right on

Sell it now, selling out
Everyone you know is selling out
Sell it now, selling out
Everyone you know is selling out

?Cause there?s a war and you believe it
?Cause there?s a war and you don?t care
Sell it all, sell it now, sell it now

?Cause there?s a war and you don?t see it
?Cause there?s a war and you don?t care

Sell it now, selling out
Everyone you know is selling out
Sell it now, selling out
Everyone you know is selling out

Bring me the head of Roman Polanski
Bring me the legs of Fred Astaire
