

Worst Girl

Amy Shark

You feel the cold, now the wind gusts straight through
I feel it too, I feel it too
I'll make the call to give up seeing you
What else is new, what else is new
I never, never, never, never want to hold you back
You're always, always, always, always on my mind, even right now

No, no, no, no wait
No, no, no, no wait
I got something to say to you now

We started a fire and let it burn out
Took you for granted, I'm the worst girl out here

I'm so unstable, you're smarter than me
Got a degree, that's one up on me
I never, never, never, never want to hold you back
You're always, always, always, always on my mind, even right now

No, no, no, no wait
No, no, no, no wait
I got something to say to you now

We started a fire and let it burn out
Took you for granted, I'm the worst girl out here

Tell me if I'm losing it
But I think that the universe was written for the two of us
I'm not that young, but I'm new to this
Bearing my problems like Vesuvius
Another night could ruin us
In a time where everyone's quitting
Other heart together, hurting, and never committing
We are growing intertwined molecularly
We are trying for forever, no end or beginning
I don't wanna breathe or eat unless you are with me
I could be your sea breeze, weather permitting
I know I'm the worst sometimes

No, no, no, no wait
No, no, no, no wait
I got something to say to you now

We started a fire and let it burn out
Took you for granted, I'm the worst girl out here
You started a fire and let it burn out
Took you for granted, I'm the worst girl out here
