

Your Love Ain't Real

Ana Popovic

don't get any closer
don't get any closer

now that she's gone and all about you and her is set aside now I'm here to save your soul from the everlasting desire let me be the first to let you know- you're set back down and o ut
your love ain't real

your love ain't real
don't wanna let it happen
your love ain't real

now that I'm your only one, your true love and desire You no longer wanna take it slow, lust burns out like fire and why would I wanna go and make the same mistake again?
love ain't real

Oh oh yeah oh oh yeah your love ain't real
