A Dying Wish

Anathema

I bear the seed of ruin A golden age turned to stone Elysium... to dust

For this, a tragic journey A vision of a dying embrace Scattered earth Silence...

Where Echonia wept
I sank into the silent desert

Fallen am I,
In the solitude of a broken promise
..I cried alone
My empyrean is a scar
From the memory of her beautiful life
Forever was her name

Fulfilment lost in a lifetime of regret Ornate peace would cover me
As I would die now...
For one last wish
