

Release

Anathema

Seeing is believing but I don't want to know
Walk on through the wasteland
I just can't let go
Hold on please
Face down I just break down,
When I see you cry all the time

Behind those grey and lonely eyes
Hold on to me
Reality is dawning
Unforgotten by time
Tempt fate release
Escape

As the flames fly high
Some one now is screaming
But we don't know why
Think now that we're lost here
Face down I just break down

Hold on please, behind those grey and lonely eyes
When I see you cry all the time
Hold on to me, unforgotten by time
Tempt fate, Release, reality is dawning
Escape, spirit is awakening

Hold on to me, hope is waiting
Hold on please, somewhere in the hurricane
Tempt fate release, crying in the distance
Escape, calling out your name
