29 pearls in your kiss A singing smile Coffee smell and lilac skin Your flame in me 29 pearls in your kiss A singing smile Coffee smell and lilac skin Your flame in me I'm only here for this moment I know everybody here wants you I know everybody here thinks they need you I'll be waiting right here just to show you How our love will blow it all away Such a thing of wonder in this crowd I'm a stranger in this town You're free with me And her eyes locked in downcast love I sit here proud Even now you're all dressed in your dreams with me I'm only here for this moment I know everybody here wants you I know everybody here thinks they need you I'll be waiting right here just to show you How our love will blow it all away I know the tears we've cry have dried on yesterday See if fools Nothing in my way of my love Don't you see
